Welcome, attendees, exhibitors, and friends to the 2017 ALA Annual Conference and Exhibition. I’m delighted that you’re joining us here in Chicago from all types of libraries and related organizations throughout the U.S. and more than 41 other countries. I look forward to us all making the most of these days together as we continue exploring how we can best meet the needs of all our communities and users through the lens of “Libraries Transform.” We will also be honoring and celebrating our greatly respected outgoing Executive Director, Keith Michael Fiels, after his 15 years at the helm of ALA.

So a few thoughts about our Association and the Annual Conference ...

Almost 7,000 libraries have already joined ALA’s national “Libraries Transform” campaign, which this year has focused on you—the expert in the library. We look forward to hearing your ideas and to helping more of you get involved. The transformation-related presentations, workshops, speakers, sessions, and discussions will prove especially useful in equipping us as we increase our intense focus on advocacy and articulating the value of libraries and librarians, as well as helping us prepare for the public, academic, school, and special libraries of the future.

ALA recently added Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion—all critical to a strong future for libraries—to the Association’s strategic directions, Advocacy, Information Policy, and Professional and Leadership Development. Together, these four areas lend structure to important content you’ll find throughout the conference. Among the more than 500 sessions and programs, you’ll see an increasing number of peer-to-peer and informal learning opportunities that supplement more formal learning.

There are some great additions to the Exhibits this year, always an important part of your conference experience and professional development (as well as fun). With more than 900 exhibitors and dozens of events and activities, it’s the best place to learn about new titles, products, services, and technologies. Dozens of authors will spend time there, including on the live stages, in addition to numerous book- and author-related events and celebrations of prestigious ALA book and media awards in other conference venues.

I am delighted that at Saturday’s President’s Program (3:30pm), Sarah Jessica Parker will unveil her first title selection as part of the official launch of ALA Book Club Central, for which she will serve as Honorary Chair. Book Club Central, created in partnership with Booklist, Penguin Random House, and United for Libraries, is a new online platform with an online book club, reading resources, club activity recommendations, expert book lists and other content for book clubs and their readers.

Two additional highlights for me will be on Saturday, 11:00am–12:00pm, “Making the Case: Influencing Your Funding Future,” and Saturday, 1:00–2:30pm, “Library and Information Experts Succeeding in the 21st Century: A Town Hall Dialogue on Competencies, Careers, and Successful Practice.” The first session will provide unique insight into what proves convincing to elected officials, and the second session will offer a framework for articulating future roles and responsibilities of library professionals.

Finally, please join us for Tuesday’s Inaugural Celebration where we’ll honor incoming ALA President Jim Neal, incoming President-Elect Loida Garcia-Febo, Executive Board members, and Division Presidents-Elect. It has been a privilege serving as your President this year, and I look forward to continuing our important work together.

MAYOR'S WELCOME

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CITY OF CHICAGO

RAHM EMANUEL
MAYOR

June 22, 2017

Dear Friends:

As Mayor, and on behalf of the City of Chicago, I am pleased and proud to welcome everyone gathered for the American Library Association’s Annual Conference & Exhibition.

Since its formation in 1876, the American Library Association (ALA) has been an innovative organization committed to creating dynamic spaces for literacy and learning, and research and archiving. For 140 years, the Association has remained a steward for community, culture, and change with initiatives rooted in connecting residents across boundaries and backgrounds. Throughout the world, libraries serve as comprehensive community centers with involved programming spanning literacy outreach, early childhood and adult education, media & technology, cultural services and much more. And ALA’s committed membership – numbering more than 62,000 – maintains active partnerships with schools, agencies, museums and other institutions that help to inform the canon while engaging the community. The American Library Association will always strengthen the fabric of our cultural tapestry.

This year’s conference presents a special opportunity for librarians, educators, publishers, other professionals, and everyday readers to come together. An array of events will focus on popular literature, current trends in librarianship, and more with interactive sessions and incredible exhibits. I urge all of you to network and take full advantage of being in the same room with leaders and learners from around the world. Home to the Chicago Public Library and ALA’s headquarters, Chicago could not be more proud to host this exciting conference. When looking toward a vibrant future for our neighborhoods, one of the first places we must begin is with our libraries. I commend the American Library Association for enlightening and inspiring generations of residents everywhere every day.

After exchanging ideas and networking, it is my hope that those visiting our great city take time to experience some of the special places in Chicago. Our iconic skyline, incredible lakefront, and historic neighborhoods invite you to explore all Chicago has to offer. I hope you have a chance to sample our distinguished restaurants, tour our great universities, and visit our world-class museums during your stay.

I hope you have an enjoyable and informative event. Best wishes for much continued success.

Sincerely,

\[Signature\]

Reshma Saujani

Friday, June 23 • 4:00 pm – 5:15 pm

Since 2012, Girls Who Code has taught computing skills to and inspired more than 10,000 girls across America—and they’re just at the beginning of their mission to close the gender gap in tech. Reshma Saujani, the Founder and CEO of the national non-profit organization, is also the author of the groundbreaking book Women Who Don’t Wait In Line, in which she advocates for a new model of female leadership focused on embracing risk and failure, promoting mentorship and sponsorship, and boldly charting your own course.

Girls Who Code is growing fast, with a goal of reaching one million young women by 2020. It has been featured in more than 100 publications and media outlets, from the New York Times to the Today Show, and has more than 105,000 Twitter followers—likely including some of your patrons and students. The forthcoming book Girls Who Code: Learn to Code and Change the World (August 2017, ages 10 and up), will show girls how coding skills are relevant to their lives and will get them excited about creating their own apps, games, and robots, setting out to prove that coding is truly for everyone, no matter their interests. The Friendship Code, a fictional title, will be published at the same time as Girls Who Code.

Saujani has been named one of Fortune’s 40 under 40, a WSJ Magazine Innovator of the Year, one of the 50 Most Powerful Women in New York by the New York Daily News, Forbes’s Most Powerful Women Changing the World, Business Insider’s 50 Women Who Are Changing the World, and an AOL/PBS Next MAKER.

Sponsored by Penguin Young Readers (Booth #3711)
Signing will take place outside the ballroom immediately following the event.

ALA PRESIDENT'S PROGRAM

MCP-W375b/Skyline Ballroom

Sarah Jessica Parker

Saturday, June 24 • 3:30 pm – 4:30 pm

“From an early age, books were my constant companions and my local library a place I could find a new friend on every shelf,” says award-winning television and film actor, producer, designer, library supporter and avid reader Sarah Jessica Parker. During this 2017 President’s Program, as part of the official launch of ALA Book Club Central, for which she will serve as Honorary Chair, Parker will unveil her first title selection and introduce the guest author who will join her on stage. Book Club Central—created in partnership with Booklist and United for Libraries—is an online platform of reading resources, including recommendations, expert book lists and other content for book clubs and their readers.

In another literary venture, Parker recently launched SJP for Hogarth with Molly Stern, Senior Vice President and Publisher of Crown, Hogarth, Broadway, Crown Archetype, and Three Rivers Press. SJP for Hogarth will selectively publish high-quality works of fiction by both established writers and distinctive emerging voices with critical and commercial promise.

Parker, an Emmy-, Golden Globe-, and Screen Actors Guild Award-winning actor, is the star and executive producer of the HBO series Divorce, and is well known for her leading role as Carrie Bradshaw on Sex and the City. She currently serves as the Vice-Chairman of the board of directors for the New York City ballet, and was elected in 2009 by the Obama administration to be a member of the President’s Committee on the Arts and the Humanities.

Sponsored by Penguin Random House (Booth #3711)
A book signing by the Book Club Central selected author will immediately follow the program.

ALA AWARDS & KEYNOTE ADDRESS

MCP-W375b/Skyline Ballroom

Ron Chernow

Sunday, June 25 • 3:00 pm – 4:30 pm

Join ALA President Julie Todaro for the ALA Awards followed by her selected guest speaker, Ron Chernow. One of the most distinguished commentators on politics, business, and finance in the U.S. today, Chernow has been praised by the National Endowment for the Humanities for “bringing our Nation’s story to life. Through his examination of America’s successful giants and titans, Chernow invites his readers to discover their failures and foibles, uncovering enduring lessons that inform our modern era.”

His books have won many awards, including the 1990 best nonfiction National Book Award for his first book, The House of Morgan, and the Pulitzer Prize for his 2010 biography of George Washington. His second book, The Warburgs, won the prestigious George S. Eccles Prize for best business book and was cited by the ALA as one of the year’s ten best works. Chernow’s much anticipated biography of Alexander Hamilton was described by The New York Times as “moving and masterly...by far the best biography ever written about the man.” The book inspired the Broadway musical Hamilton on which Chernow worked with the show’s creator and star Lin-Manuel Miranda as historical consultant.

A frequent contributor to The New York Times and The Wall Street Journal, Chernow is a familiar figure on national radio and television shows and has appeared in numerous documentaries. His newest biography, Grant, will be published in Fall 2017.

Sponsored by Penguin Random House (Booth #3711)
Signing will take place outside the ballroom immediately following the event.

Please note: the President’s Program is on Saturday this year.
CLOSING GENERAL SESSION

Hillary Rodham Clinton

Tuesday, June 27 • 10:00 am—11:30 am

MCP - W375b/Skyline Ballroom

Hillary Rodham Clinton

In 2016 Hillary Rodham Clinton became the first woman in U.S. history to become the presidential nominee of a major political party. She served as the 67th Secretary of State—from January 21, 2009, until February 1, 2013—after nearly four decades in public service advocating on behalf of children and families as an attorney, First Lady, and U.S. Senator from New York. She and her husband, President Bill Clinton, are the proud parents of Chelsea and grandparents of Charlotte and Aidan.

She is the author of several bestselling books, including the memoirs Hard Choices and Living History, and her groundbreaking work on children, It Takes a Village. This September, Simon & Schuster will publish a new book by Secretary Clinton. Additionally, in September, It Takes a Village will be published for the first time by Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers as an all-new, full-color picture book illustrated by two-time Caldecott Honor recipient Marla Frazee.

This session is open only to full conference registrants of the 2017 ALA Annual Conference.

Clinton’s appearance is sponsored by Simon & Schuster (Booth #2920)

INAUGURAL LUNCHEON

Tuesday, June 27 • 11:45 am – 2:00 pm

Gene Luen Yang
Saturday, June 24 • 8:30 am – 9:30 am

Gene Luen Yang, teacher, cartoonist and author, began drawing comic books in the fifth grade and in 1997 received a Xeric Grant for his first comic, Gordon Yamamoto and the King of the Geeks. A MacArthur Fellow, Yang has produced full-length graphic novels, short stories, and serial comics, many of which explore present-day and historical events through a contemporary Chinese American lens. American Born Chinese, his first graphic novel was a National Book Award finalist, as well as the winner of the Printz Award and an Eisner Award. He is a long-time educator who champions comics and graphic novels as educational tools in the classroom and has delivered a TEDx Talk on the subject.

As National Ambassador for Young People’s Literature, Yang is focusing on his program “Reading Without Walls,” showing kids and teens—and adults invested in young people’s literacy—that reading is a vital part of their lives, and the importance of “reading without walls.” This might mean reading a book about a character who doesn’t look like them or live like them, reading a book about a topic they don’t know much about, or reading a book in a format they don’t usually choose.

Yang said he was thrilled to serve as Honorary Chair of the 2016 National Library Week. “Libraries were such an important part of my childhood, and they’re an important part of my life today. I visit my local library to research, to read, to write, and to be inspired. I’m deeply grateful for our nation’s libraries and librarians.”

Sponsored by Macmillan Children’s Publishing Group (Booth #2711) and Dark Horse Comics (Booth #3927)
Signing will take place outside the ballroom immediately following the event.

Sandra Uwiringiyimana
Saturday, June 24 • 10:30 am – 11:30 am

Sandra Uwiringiyimana, originally from the Democratic Republic of Congo, was just ten years old when she found herself with a gun pointed at her head. She had watched as rebels gunned down her mother and six-year-old sister in a refugee camp. Remarkably, the rebel didn’t pull the trigger, and she escaped. Uwiringiyimana tells her remarkable story in the memoir How Dare the Sun Rise: Memoirs of a War Child. She joins us to share the story of her survival, of finding her place in a new country, of her hope for the future, and how she found a way to give voice to her people.

Since her family’s resettlement to the United States in 2007 through a United Nations refugee program, Uwiringiyimana has fought hard to raise awareness and calls for justice for the Gatumba massacre and other human rights abuses in the region. She is passionate about girls’ education and ending child marriage, and has become a voice for women and girls, refugees and immigrants, and forgotten people like the Banyamulenge Tribe. Now a student at Mercy College in New York City, she is the co-founder and Director of Partnerships & Communications at Jimbere Fund (jimberefund.org). In telling her story, she has shared the world stage with Charlie Rose, Angelina Jolie, former Secretary of State Madeleine Albright, and Tina Brown at the Women in the World Summit. She addressed the United Nations Security Council at the request of Ambassador Samantha Power to plead with world leaders to act on the pressing issue of children in armed conflict.

AUDITORIUM SPEAKER SERIES

Brené Brown

Sunday, June 25 • 8:30 am – 9:30 am

Dr. Brené Brown has spent the past 15 years studying courage, vulnerability, shame, and empathy and is the author of three #1 New York Times bestsellers—The Gifts of Imperfection, Daring Greatly, and Rising Strong. With over 25 million views, her TED talk, “The Power of Vulnerability,” is one of the top five most viewed TED talks in the world. She has also appeared on Oprah’s “Super Soul Sunday,” “Super Soul Sessions,” and in Oprah magazine.

Brown’s reputation as a speaker is built on her ability to explore difficult topics with tremendous honesty, warmth, and humor. She is a thought-leader, researcher, and storyteller with the rare ability to both inspire audiences and leave them with actionable change strategies. As she says, “you either walk inside your story and own it, or you stand outside your story and hustle for your worthiness.”

Brown is the Founder and CEO of both COURAGEworks—an online learning platform that offers classes for individuals and families on braver living and loving, and BRAVE LEADERS INC—an organization dedicated to providing courage-building programs for leaders at every level of an organization. In 2016, the Huffington Foundation endowed a new chair at The University of Houston Graduate College of Social Work to honor the research professor. The Huffington Foundation Endowed Chair provides annual resources for Brown’s research to attract world-class students pursuing training in Grounded Theory methodology and increase the impact of her work as more students are trained in her research on vulnerability, shame, courage and empathy.

SPECIAL SESSION from THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

Sunday, June 25 • 10:30 am – 12:00 pm
MCP-W375b/Skyline Ballroom

A conversation hosted by Dr. Carla Hayden, Librarian of Congress. Hear from the panel as they discuss issues facing libraries.

Panel: Brian Bannon, Chicago Public Library; Luis Herrera, San Francisco Public Library; Tony Marx, New York Public Library

Now librarian for the largest library in the world, Dr. Carla Hayden was president of the American Library Association from 2003 to 2004.
Andy Weir
UNITED FOR LIBRARIES PRESIDENT’S PROGRAM

Monday, June 26 • 8:30 am – 9:30 am

Bestselling author, Andy Weir built a career as a software engineer until the runaway success of his debut novel, The Martian, which has sold over 3 million copies, allowed him to write full-time. He is a lifelong space nerd and a devoted hobbyist of subjects such as relativistic physics, orbital mechanics, and the history of manned spaceflight.

United for Libraries President, Susan Schmidt will host the President’s Program featuring Weir, who will introduce his new book, Artemis, an adrenaline-charged crime caper that features smart, detailed world-building based on real science and the charm that makes Weir’s writing so irresistible. The book has already garnered feature film adaptation in Hollywood. This, coupled with his new CBS TV show, Mission Control, a drama about flight controllers at NASA, Weir seems to be living his dreams, as he grew up not wanting to be an astronaut, but a flight controller. “I grew up when it sucked to be a nerd. When you’d be intensely unpopular. The only people who liked you were other hard-core nerds. Now, it’s all, You’re a nerd, you’re probably going to be successful in life!”

Artemis will be available in Fall 2017.

*Sponsored by Penguin Random House (Booth #3711)
Signing will take place outside the ballroom immediately following the event.*

The AASL Awards Ceremony highlights best practices in school librarianship through collaboration, leadership, innovative programming, national involvement, and upholding the principles of the profession. The program is a public acknowledgment and celebration of school librarians who have made significant contributions and modeled excellence within the profession. Dr. Scott Beck, PhD, head principal at Norman High School (OK) will speak on how 21st-century school librarians contribute to student outcomes. His presentation will be an amazing advocacy opportunity for any librarian to hear what administrators expect from their school librarians. The AASL President’s Program will immediately follow the Awards Ceremony.

ACRL & PLA Joint Presidents’ Program
Saturday, June 24 • 10:30 am – 11:30 am
HYATT-Grand AB

Join ACRL President Irene Herold and PLA President Felton Thomas, Jr. for a unique, joint Presidents’ Program featuring leadership expert Bernard (Bernie) Banks, Associate Dean for Leadership Development and Clinical Professor of Management at Northwestern University’s Kellogg School of Management. This program will offer key leadership development for all levels of academic, research, and public librarians who are faced with complex problems. Banks will discuss how organizational challenges can be understood from a variety of organizational frames, thus giving attendees a more complex approach to developing effective, robust solutions. This event is a can’t-miss for those interested in increasing their leadership responsibilities, as well as those looking to expand their ability to understand and assess multi-faceted challenges. This event is open to all conference attendees.

ALCTS and LLAMA Presidents’ Program—The Business of Social Impact: Creating a World Where Everyone Has Value
Monday, June 26 • 10:30 am – 12:00 pm
MCP-W192

Businesses and their role in society are often defined by an organizations’ tax status as a “for profit” or “non-profit.” However, every business is a social enterprise, whether they know it or not, and has a role to advance society. With social entrepreneurship on the rise, the convergence of for profit and non-profit business models is imminent. How do we create social impact in a world where everyone has value? Presenter, Dorri McWhorter who became the CEO of the YWCA Metropolitan Chicago in March 2013. She has embarked upon a journey to transform the 140 year old social service agency to a 21st century social enterprise, and is moving the agency into the digital age by re-launching the TechGYRRLS program, which focuses on developing STEM awareness for girls ages 9 through 14 and introducing 3D: Developing Digital Diversity, providing web and mobile application development training to adult women.

ALSC Charlemae Rollins President’s Program—Plugging into the Digital Age: Libraries Engaging and Supporting Families with Today’s Literacy
Monday, June 26 • 1:00 pm – 2:30 pm
MCP-W185bc

Digital technology impacts all areas of life: brain development, learning styles, and interpersonal relationships. Experts in the field who have gathered to present the latest research on digital-age technology and its relationship to childhood development and childhood literacy include Chip Donohue from the Erikson Institute and Sarah R. Lytle from the Institute for Learning and Brain Sciences who will present the latest research in this area of study—and Lisa Regalla from the Center for Childhood Creativity at the Bay Area Discovery Museum, who will discuss practical ways to implement this information in our libraries & services. This panel will provide attendees with innovative ways for librarians to enhance their professional development and grow into their role as media mentors for children and caregivers.

ASCLA President’s Program—Healthy Aging @ Your Library: Connecting Older Adults to Health Information
Saturday, June 24 • 1:00 pm – 2:30 pm
MCP-W175b

Sponsored by the ASCLA President, this session is designed to help library staff assist older adults in finding health information. Discover techniques to teach older adults how to use computers and how to find health information on the Internet. Attendees will learn what makes a website senior-friendly, ideas for planning library programs on senior health topics, and where to locate health materials for distribution to older adults within the community.

Speakers: Lydia Collins, Consumer Health Coordinator, National Network of Libraries of Medicine; Christian Minter, Outreach/Education Coordinator, National Network of Libraries of Medicine
LITA President’s Program
Sunday, June 25 • 3:00 pm – 4:00 pm
MCP-W192

LITA President Aimee Fifarek welcomes Kameron Hurley, author of the essay collection The Geek Feminist Revolution, as well as the award-winning God’s War Trilogy and The Worldbreaker Saga. Hurley has won the Hugo Award, Kitschy Award, and Sydney J. Bounds Award for Best Newcomer. She was also a finalist for the Arthur C. Clarke Award, the Nebula Award, and the Gemmell Morningstar Award. Her short fiction has appeared in Popular Science Magazine, Lightspeed Magazine, and many anthologies. Hurley has written for The Atlantic, Entertainment Weekly, The Village Voice, Bitch Magazine, and Locus Magazine. She posts regularly at KameronHurley.com. In this thought-provoking talk, essayist and author Kameron Hurley will discuss how curated content is shaping not only the stories we tell about ourselves, but the realities we live in, and how librarians and other information professionals can help shape these narratives.

Bill McKibben: Imagining a World That Works—In Time to Prevent a World That Doesn’t (SRRT/SustainRT/AILA/APALA)
Saturday, June 24 • 1:00 pm – 2:30 pm
MCP-S102

Cited by the Boston Globe as “probably America’s most important environmentalist,” acclaimed environmentalist, activist, and author Bill McKibben will present “Imagining a World That Works—In Time to Prevent a World That Doesn’t”. Bill McKibben has written over a dozen books including his 1989 book, The End of Nature, which is regarded as the first book for a general audience about climate change and has appeared in 24 languages. He is the founder of 350.org, the first planet-wide, grassroots climate change movement, which has organized twenty thousand rallies around the world in every country save North Korea, spearheaded the resistance to the Keystone Pipeline, and launched the fast-growing fossil fuel divestment movement.

RUSA—Forget the Future: Our Time is Now with David Lankes, Director of the University of South Carolina’s School of Library & Information Science
Saturday, June 24 • 4:30 pm – 5:30 pm
MCP-W190a

As those we serve face growing tensions, there is a need for a community of professional dedicated to the common good and founded on knowledge. However our communities don’t need us to gate keep a collection, offer up workshops, or staff a building. They need us adding value to their lives with them in their homes, classrooms, offices, and devices. David Lankes will explore how reference and user services not only remain relevant, but mobilize to addresses the real challenges of today’s community.

Speaker: David Lankes, Professor and Dean’s Scholar for New Librarianship, School of Information Studies, Syracuse University

Moderators: Valerie Gross, President & CEO, Howard County Library System; Roberto Delgadillo; Humanities, Social Sciences and Government Information Services Librarian, Peter J. Shields Library University of California, Davis

YALSA’s President’s Program—Real Teens, Real Ready
Monday, June 26 • 10:30 am – 12:00 pm
MCP-W184bc

YALSA President Sarah Hill’s year-long initiative, “Real Teens, Real Ready” focuses on the need for libraries to evolve in order to effectively serve today’s teens. In ever-changing and uncertain times, teens feel under-prepared for their future, yet the library can be their instrument to readiness for careers, college, workforce, and life. Attend this interactive session and learn about a range of innovative programs serving today’s teens and learn strategies you can take back to your own library.
Since its launch in October 2015, more than 7,000 libraries and supporters have joined the Libraries Transform campaign. The campaign has increased public awareness of the value, impact, and services provided by libraries and library professionals, creating one clear, energetic voice for our profession. It showcases the transformative nature of today’s libraries and elevates the critical role libraries play in the digital age. It highlights how libraries and librarians are preparing for and leading change that transforms lives in the communities they serve.

In addition to these highlights, use the Conference Scheduler or the mobile app at alaannual.org/scheduler to find transformation-related sessions, programs, and events.

EQUITY, DIVERSITY, AND INCLUSION

Since January, the world has continued to be an uncertain place. Recent spikes in hate crimes in libraries aim to intimidate, and political populism challenges the very core values and beliefs that underpin democracy. Libraries have long supported these values through supporting equity of access to information. At the 2017 ALA Midwinter Meeting, the Association moved to adopt Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion as the Association’s fourth Strategic Direction, in recognition of the fact that now more than ever, libraries are looking to these principles as essential to the success of our institutions, or values, and our democracy.

You Can’t Stay Neutral on a Moving Train: Making Critical Librarianship Tangible Through Library Programs and Exhibits
Saturday, June 24 • 8:30 am – 10:00 am
MCP - W187c

Many librarians struggle with the practical application of critical librarianship in their everyday work. Through library public programming and exhibits, libraries have the opportunity to highlight the voices and concerns of those from traditionally marginalized groups. This panel will cover concrete example of how to integrate social justice into library programs and exhibits. These examples provide the audience with a diverse range of settings and topics so the audience can implement some of these ideas in their own libraries.

Fearless Questions and Fierce Conversations: Recruiting and Retaining LIS Doctoral Students of Color
Saturday, June 24 • 10:30 am – 11:30 am
PALM - Empire Room

Cultivating a diverse workforce is of great importance, but representation of librarians of color in LIS education, research, and executive-level administration is lacking. Recruiting librarians and other information professionals of color is a social justice issue. A panel of current doctoral students will address various aspects of the PhD process including: networks of allies, safe spaces, and fit in a program. Join us for the annual Leaders Wanted: Doctoral Fair immediately following!

APALA President’s Program, Rising Up: South Asian, Muslim, Arab and Sikh Communities Reshape America
Saturday, June 24 • 10:30 am – 12:00 pm
MCP - W184bc

Over the past 15 years, we have witnessed a rise in xenophobia, racial anxiety and Islamophobia in the United States. On the frontlines of this backlash are Muslim, Arab and South Asian communities. Join us for a book talk with Deepa Iyer, author of the award-winning We Too Sing America: South Asian, Muslim, Arab and Sikh Communities Shape Our Multiracial Future, to discuss the implications of the domestic War on Terror and the power of storytelling as a means of resistance and solidarity. Book signing to follow.

The American Dream Initiative: Serving English Language Learners
Saturday, June 24 • 1:00 pm – 2:30 pm
MCP - W181b

The American Dream Literacy Initiative is an adult literacy program based in public libraries throughout the U.S. To date, more than 185 libraries in Dollar General communities have initiated or expanded literacy services for adult English language learners. The grants allow libraries to augment their print and digital ESL collections; increase computer access and training; provide job training; hold ELL, GED, and citizenship classes; and raise the visibility of services for immigrant populations. American Dream libraries build replicable programs, develop coalition-building strategies, and provide annotated lists of vetted resources for libraries across the country.

AILA President’s Program
Saturday, June 24 • 3:00 pm – 4:00 pm
HRM - Clark/CC 22AB

Ricardo Caté, the popular humorist who puts reservation life to print for all to ponder and enjoy, will be featured as the AILA President’s Program speaker. Cartoonist, author, and activist are just a few descriptors cited when Ricardo Caté’s works are shared with the world. Caté has been drawing the daily cartoon “Without Reservations” for the Santa Fe New Mexican and other newspapers since 2006 and has published compilation of his work by the same name. Growing up with his grandparents on the Santo Domingo (Kewa) Pueblo provided Ricardo the fodder and honed his skills as a true communicator of Native American life that you are sure to find thought-provoking, funny, and often ironic.
Coretta Scott King Award Books Idea Exchange

Saturday, June 24 • 3:00 pm – 4:00 pm
MCP-W184d

Panelists will provide highlights of acclaimed activities and lessons utilizing the Coretta Scott King Book Award winner and honor books in public and school libraries, classrooms, and academia. Attendees are encouraged to bring successful ideas, activities, lessons, and strategies to share. There will be a sharing session at the end of the panel presentation. The Coretta Scott King Book Awards study guides will also be discussed.

Integrating Diversity Initiatives and Community Engagement: The Human Library at Penn State University

Saturday, June 24 • 3:00 pm – 4:00 pm
MCP-W187b

In order to create dialogue with patrons about diversity and inclusion, the Penn State University Library Learning Services (LLS) department collaborated with university and community organizations to hold the Human Library project. LLS sought to increase participants’ awareness of their own biases and privileges and facilitate communication and empathy with others. This presentation will assess the department’s key partnerships in facilitating the Human Library and evaluate outcomes relative to diversity, inclusion, and community engagement.

Truth, Racial Healing and Transformation

Saturday, June 24 • 3:00 pm – 4:00 pm
MCP-W185d

In 2009 the W.K. Kellogg Foundation launched its America Healing initiative, supporting racial equity/racial healing projects in over 100 communities. Building on this initiative, the Foundation has launched a Truth, Racial Healing and Transformation enterprise (TRHT) designed to uproot the myth of a hierarchy of human value based on race. As a framework, it has prepared case studies on several America Healing communities. This session will examine principles employed, activities that have proven most effective, cross-sector collaborations, successes and challenges, and lessons learned. A question and answer period will explore how library workers can be engaged in the TRHT process.

2017 ALA Diversity & Outreach Fair

Saturday, June 24 • 3:00 pm – 5:00 pm

Immigration Services 101: Naturalization Assistance and More in Your Public Library

Sunday, June 25 • 10:30 am – 11:30 am
MCP-S103

Libraries and librarians are obtaining a special credential that allows librarians to provide immigration services outreach, screenings and referrals in the library. Several use the credential to provide assistance applying for immigration benefits. Join us for a discussion of how the libraries in California are leading the way with this new tool in branches that serve a high number of immigrant families.

Speakers: Madeleine Ildefonso; Sara Jones; Jack Holmgren

GLBT Library Leaders on Queerness at Work: How Queer Identities Impact Leadership Roles, Professional Relationships, and Career Trajectories

Sunday, June 25 • 1:00 pm – 2:30 pm
MCP-W180

Library leaders navigate complex environments that require political savvy and deep connection to staff and the community. Often, these leaders are highly visible and seen as the public face of an agency or municipal department. In addition to the intricacies all library leaders face in remaining authentic in their work, queer leaders must decide how much of their queerness to bring to professional life. In this session, a panel of library leaders self-identified as GLBT offer real talk about the ways queerness does or does not affect board and staff relations, community interactions, service design, hiring procedures (including recruitment and talent development), involvement in the field of librarianship, and day-to-day work. Panel members will discuss the factors that contribute to their choice to be visibly queer or not in their professional lives. Questions from the audience will be welcomed after the presentation.

Where There is Thunder, There is Lightning: EDI and Change in Libraries

Sunday, June 25 • 3:00 pm – 4:00 pm
MCP-W176a

HIL - Stevens Center, Salon A

Join your playful colleagues to start the conference off with a gaming break at the Hilton Chicago on Friday, June 23 from 7:30pm–10:00pm. And don’t forget the Gaming Lounge in the exhibit hall at booth #1325.

Banned Books Read Out

MCP - near Registration Area

“Words have Power” is the theme for Banned Books Week 2017 (Sept. 24–Sept. 30), acknowledging that books connect communities and present new ideas and recognizing your own ability to speak out against censorship. Supporting this observance, ALA’s Office for Intellectual Freedom and SAGE Publishing is again hosting the Stand for the Banned booth at Conference. At the booth, you can be filmed speaking from the heart about how a book that has been banned before has impacted your life or read a short passage from your favorite banned book. Your video will be featured on the Banned Books Week YouTube channel during Banned Books Week.

ALA Lounge and Networking Uncommons

MCP - Grand Concourse

Meet ALA staff and volunteers, connect with colleagues, get your questions answered, and find ALA Ambassadors ready to help you make connections to programs, people, and places so your conference time is well spent. Show your support of #LibrariesTransform by snapping a picture at the photo booth. Get your “cheeses” ready for the first conference class photo #ALAAC17ClassPhoto at 2:30pm on Saturday. #Quest4ALAAC17—request a Quest for a chance to win awesome prizes! Relax and charge your devices. Continue your conversations and build on new ideas in the Uncommons—you can even schedule space there. Find more details on pages 26–27.

The Park @ ALA

THE PLAYGROUND @ ALA

This new interactive area will give you the chance to "play" with future-focused technologies arriving in libraries today and tomorrow. The Playground @ ALA will showcase a wide range of hands-on opportunities including a maker space, virtual and augmented reality demo zone, coding for all ages, drone piloting, 3D printing in various formats, robotics and more. The Playground @ ALA is located in the middle of the exhibit hall behind The Park @ ALA.

► How can we break down barriers to opportunity and empower every student through technology? Join us at the Google Lounge space to recharge and learn how we can work together to inspire youth around the world not just to use technology but to create it. More information on Google’s free computer science education efforts is available at g.co/csedu.

► The Maker Demo area will feature many emerging technologies and organizations that are making their way into library spaces every day. The Demo Area will give attendees hands-on opportunities with a wide range of tools from coding to 3D printing and STEM toys to mobile apps. If you ever considered starting or expanding your maker space, this is a must be destination filled with the latest games, gadgets, gizmos along with takeaway activities. The Area is being organized by the Evolve Project evolveproject.org/ a collaborative platform that aims to change the way people see libraries through partnering with innovative start-ups around the world.

Looking for an easy community service contribution... The Playground will also feature a Little Free Library construction area and the ALA Staff Association will host a blood drive.

► Blood donations help save lives. Organized by the ALA Staff Association and LifeSource Chicago, a limited number of donation opportunities will be available. Visit the website to schedule a time or stop by to see if there are openings. Saturday and Sunday, 10:00am–4:00pm, A special thanks to LifeSource. www.lifesource.org/donate-blood

► Everyone is invited to join Little Free Library for Library-building. Stop by, pick up a drill, and help assemble a Library kit. Not mechanically inclined? We’ll have additional fun and interactive activities for you! Libraries left with Little Free Library will be distributed through our Impact Fund program. This program receives hundreds of applications a year from people and organizations all around the U.S. that need a boost in bringing books to their communities. Recipients of these Libraries will receive mounting posts for installation, a starter set of books, and free shipping. www.LittleFreeLibrary.org

VISIT TLA IN BOOTH #1114
SPECTRUM LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

Note Spectrum Institute events in the Palmer House are open only to current Spectrum Scholars, and invited alumni and guests.
Queer library folks with multiple identities often struggle to find acceptance and belonging, feeling excluded and invisible within an already marginalized community. This panel explores intersectionality—a concept coined by scholar Kimberlé Crenshaw in the late 1980’s—and the ways that multiple forms of oppression are interconnected and cannot be examined separately from each other. The queer library folk featured address how even though they share an identity, each of their lived experiences is different. Attendees receive strategies for building respect for difference, creating open and accepting spaces for LGBTQ staff and library users, and increasing acceptance of people with complex identities.

Moderator: Alanna Aiko Moore, Librarian for Sociology, Ethnic Studies and Gender Studies, UC San Diego Library

Speakers: Adriana Burgos-Ojeda, Library Media Specialist, John F. Kennedy High School; Whitney Lopez, Gallery and Archive Assistant, Taller Puertorriqueño; Jhani Miller, Adult Senior Librarian, Brooklyn Public Library-Macon Branch

14th Librarian of Congress Carla Hayden, the first woman and the first African American to lead the national library, headlines this special kick-off celebration of the 20th Anniversary of ALA’s Spectrum Scholarship Program! A minimum donation of the $20 ticket purchase includes hors d’oeuvres and cash bar. Add Ticketed Event ALA5 at the Registration desk. All proceeds support ALA’s Spectrum Scholarship Program.

Through Spectrum, more than 1,000 library leaders of color have benefited from scholarships, community building, and opportunities to collectively advance equity, diversity, and inclusion.

Visit spectrum.ala.org to learn about additional Anniversary Events happening across the country, our Champions, and featured scholars from each of our 20 years.

Carla Hayden was sworn in as the 14th Librarian of Congress on September 14, 2016. Hayden was nominated to the position by President Barack Obama on February 24, 2016, and her nomination was confirmed by the U.S. Senate on July 13. Prior to her latest post she served, since 1993, as CEO of the Enoch Pratt Free Library in Baltimore, Maryland. Hayden was nominated by President Obama to be a member of the National Museum and Library Services Board in January 2010 and was confirmed to that post by the Senate in June 2010. Prior to joining the Pratt Library, Hayden was deputy commissioner and chief librarian of the Chicago Public Library from 1991 to 1993. She was an assistant professor for Library and Information Science at the University of Pittsburgh from 1987 to 1991. Hayden was library services coordinator for the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago from 1982 to 1987. She began her career with the Chicago Public Library as the young adult services coordinator from 1979 to 1982 and as a library associate and children’s librarian from 1973 to 1979.

Dr. Hayden chaired the Spectrum Steering Committee in 1997 which set the course for the Spectrum Scholarship Program. Hayden was president of the American Library Association from 2003 to 2004. In 1995, she was the first African American to receive Library Journal’s Librarian of the Year Award in recognition of her outreach services at the Pratt Library, which included an after-school center for Baltimore teens offering homework assistance and college and career counseling. Hayden received a B.A. from Roosevelt University and an M.A. and Ph.D. from the Graduate Library School of the University of Chicago.

Tested

10:30 am - 12:00 pm
The film looks at the hot-button issue of education, diversity, and public schools. This past year, the film has screened with over 100 universities, non-profits and educational groups in 8 countries including the White House, Lincoln Center, SXSWedu and the American Educational Research Association.

Running Time: 72 min.
Preview: www.testedfilm.com

Sponsored by: Kanopy

Agents of Change

1:00 pm - 2:15 pm
Agents of Change examines the untold story of the racial conditions on college campuses across the country that led to college protests during the 1960s. Reveals how unprepared these institutions were when confronted by demands for black studies programs, safer housing, fairer judicial proceedings, and changes to democratize the institutions. The film’s characters were at the crossroads of change and controversy at a pivotal time in America’s history.

Running Time: 66 min.
Preview: www.agentsofchangefilm.com/trailer/

Sponsored by: California Newsreel; Video Round Table (VRT)

The Revival: Women and the Word

2:30 pm - 4:00 pm

Upstairs Inferno

8:00 am – 10:00 am
On June 24, 1973, an arsonist set fire to the Up Stairs Lounge, a New Orleans bar. The result was the largest gay mass murder in U.S. history. Despite the staggering historical significance, few people know about the tragedy. Thirty-two people were killed and some bodies were never identified. One-third of the New Orleans Metropolitan Community Church were killed in the blaze. No one was ever charged with the crime. The tragedy did not stop at the loss of lives. There were also the delayed injuries: lost jobs, fear, public ridicule and severed families. The devastation was compounded by the homophobic reactions and lack of concern by the general public, government and religious leaders. The fire permanently altered lives and was the root of many lifelong struggles.

Running Time: 96 min.

Mission to Lars
4:00 pm – 5:30 pm
This film sheds light on how autism affects people in real world situations. Most people don’t understand how the autistic mind works and why certain responses and outcomes come from a given situation.

I Know a Man…
Ashley Bryan
8:00 am – 9:00 am
The film features 93 years-old beloved African American artist Ashley Bryan, award-winning poet/illustrator of 50+ published children’s books, maker of magical puppets and sea glass windows inspired by his African heritage. The film highlights some of his award winning books including a reading of Beautiful Blackbird and a scene with Mr. Bryan telling children an alternative ending to his popular book Can’t Scare Me. Ashley is the recipient of three Coretta Scott King Awards, a NY Public Libraries Literary Lions Award and a prestigious 2017 Newbery Award for his latest book: Freedom Over Me. Librarians could use the film as a tool to engage and encourage children and youth to read Ashley Bryans books and to learn more about what has inspired Ashley throughout his life. The film is also a wonderful tool to learn about diversity, cultural competency, inclusion and social justice.

All Governments Lie
It is an expose on how the media and politicians how come under the influence of corporate powers that results in the manipulation of the public. It delves into the historical writings of I.F. Stone and his legacy of sorting the truth out of government reports, and how the media has prioritized profits over truth. The film also explores what news outlets such as Democracy Now and The Young Turks are doing to promote truth in media.

Get in the Way
The topic of Civil Rights has become a very prominent political topic as of late, and Get in the Way is a great biography about civil rights leader John Lewis, who was a student activist in the vanguard of the civil rights movement, and the youngest speaker at the historic 1963 March on Washington. In March 1965, he led the Bloody Sunday march in Selma, Alabama, where state troopers attacked peaceful protesters with billy clubs, bullwhips and tear gas. It’s a superb film to show for African American History programming, as well as US History programming.

In the Steps of Trisha Brown

This film not only shows the choreography being taught, but also shares the history of Brown’s work, illustrating the way that earlier projects such as Man Walking Down the Side of a Building (1970), Leaning Piece (1970), Roof Piece (1971) and Walking on the Wall (1971) were precursors to Glacial Decoy. This film can be a valuable resource for those interested in dance and art history.

Scary Stories

This full-length documentary delves deep into the challenging of children’s books in America by looking at one of the most challenged children’s books of the last 30 years, Scary Stories to Tell in the Dark. It includes a number of ALA representatives and librarians who have confronted the thorny issue of book challenges. It discusses the last 30 years of book censorship as well as explores the differences in views in regards to censorship and age appropriateness. And it includes a unique meeting between a book challenger and the son of author Alvin Schwartz.

Long Story Short

Reminds all of us that living in poverty is a real issue for thousands of Americans. Over 100 people at homeless shelters, food banks, adult literacy programs, and job training centers in Los Angeles and the Bay Area in Northern California discuss their experiences of poverty: why they are poor, how it feels, and what they think should be done about American poverty and homelessness today. Numerous interviews are stitched together to form a polyphonic account of American poverty told from the inside. MacArthur Grantee Natalie Bookchin, an artist whose work has been shown at the Pompidou Centre, the Whitney Museum and the Tate, uses the film to amplify the voices of the displaced and dispossessed. Long Story Short is included on the ALA VRT 2017 Notable Videos for Adults list.

Running Time: 45 min.

Resilience

Resilience is designed to make this science digestible and relevant to everyone, and to showcase some of the brave and creative individuals who are putting that science into action. There is a growing group of pediatricians, educators and communities who are proving that cycles of disease and adversity can be broken. Resilience chronicles the promising beginnings of a national movement to prevent childhood trauma, treat Toxic Stress, and greatly improve the health of future generations.

SATURDAY, JUNE 24

Libraries Transform: Programs and Services for Sustainable Environments, Social Justice, and Quality Education for All—IRRT International Paper Session
1:00 pm – 2:30 pm
MCP - W181a
Because Libraries reach a large cross-section of the public, they are in a unique position to support the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals in the promotion of sustainable environments, social justice, and quality education. This program will feature presentations and projects by librarians or professionals working outside the USA or involved in projects outside of the USA whose research, libraries, or projects are working to promote lifelong learning, provide inclusive and quality education for all, reduce inequality, promote just and inclusive societies, contribute to environmental sustainability, and more!

Libraries in Germany
3:00 pm – 4:00 pm
MCP - W183b
Libraries in Germany— venerable book-museums or modern information facilities? Silence in a large reading rooms or conversation and hustle-bustle? Gutenberg or ICT? The library scene in Germany is as multifaceted and exciting as the country itself. We will present insights into trends, new developments, and new structures. We promise that you will soon want to travel to Germany to experience these discoveries yourself.

Project Welcome: Libraries Serving Refugees and Asylum Seekers
3:00 pm – 4:00 pm
MCP - W181a
“How can libraries better serve refugees and asylum seekers?” In the past year, the Mortenson Center for International Library Programs in partnership with ALA has been working on the IMLS-funded “Project Welcome” planning grant. We have been learning how libraries are and can address the information needs of refugees and asylum seekers in order to support and empower them in their resettlement and integration process. This session will present the work of the project and engage audience feedback on the library services continuum that is in development.

Leaning International: Stories from the Field
4:30 pm – 5:30 pm
MCP - W184d
For MLS students through seasoned information professionals interested in working internationally, this annual program hosted by IRRT’s International Connections Committee features American librarians discussing their own unique international experiences. Sessions are split between prepared topics and audience Q&A time. These interactive vents have included such diverse topics as leveraging networks to find work abroad, pre-departure language and etiquette training, adapting to regional librarianship as well as cultural standards, the practicalities of life overseas, and more!

SUNDAY, JUNE 25

Come to the Exhibit Floor and find out about innovative programs and transformative ideas that are shaping libraries all over the world.
China Libraries Transformed
1:00 pm – 2:30 pm
MCP-W181a

No country has undergone a more dramatic transformation of its library systems in the last fifteen years than China. Come hear about their transformative efforts, what is going on now, and what is planned for the future in public, academic, school and other libraries. This program is part of an effort between ALA and the Library Society of China to foster knowledge sharing and collaboration between the library communities in each country.

Acting for Humanity: The United Nations Sustainable Development Goals and Libraries—IRRT Chair’s Program
1:00 pm – 2:30 pm
MCP-W181a

In 2015, 150 world leaders, with support from the United Nations Development Programme, adopted 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) to fight against injustice, poverty, inequality, and climate change. This program will address how we, as librarians and libraries, can take action to better the lives of all people and protect our planet. Presenters will be part of a panel that will describe and discuss topics such as 1. How individuals, libraries, or library associations are providing programming and education to advance peace and justice, alleviate poverty and hunger, reduce inequality, increase women’s rights and political participation, or protect the environment.

Serving Refugees: Experiences from German Libraries
1:00 pm – 2:30 pm
MCP-W181b

In 2015 there were more than 1 million refugees and asylum-seekers in Germany. The influx of refugees from various cultures, especially from Syria, Afghanistan, the Balkans, and various African countries, is abating. Yet families, young men, and unaccompanied minors are still seeking refuge in Germany. Libraries in Germany have a long tradition of providing multicultural services and resources. Since 2006 an expert panel of the German Library Association has been addressing this topic. The lessons learned from the panel can be used to improve the resources for these user groups in public and academic libraries. There are many challenges, including overcoming language and cultural barriers, and integrating refugees into schools and colleges. Another consideration is staff training and information exchange on the topic using webinars and other channels. A variety of positive and hopeful responses to these challenges will be presented using real-world examples.

Near East and South Asia Update

Subject specialists for Eurasia and Central Asia, will describe strategies for acquiring materials from the region, including acquisition trips to Central Asia, exchange programs, and vendor supplied materials.

Libraries for the Global Community: Their Sustainability and Impact—ISLD Program
8:30 am – 10:00 am
MCP-W178b

Libraries and information access are more important than ever for the international community. Recognizing their impact on global literacy and understanding, the International Sustainable Library Development Interest Group will address the sustainable nature of libraries and their services, particularly in developing nations, with recognition of differing library systems and user expectations.

Cuban Libraries Today
10:30 am – 11:30 am
MCP-W176a

Thanks to the improvement in relations between the United States and Cuba opportunities are possible for a new era of connections between U.S. library community and Cuba library community. So what is the situation of Cuban libraries and librarians today? Come and find out.

10:30 am – 11:30 am
MCP-W181a

Academic libraries in Germany are constantly changing due to new developments in higher education influenced by digital transformations in research and instruction and study, as well as in reaction to scientific-political impulses. The changes occur in multiple fields, at various speeds, and sometimes simultaneously or unexpectedly. This results in continuous change management that encompasses various factors, such as organizational and personnel development, the library’s service offerings and cooperation with partners within and without the university. Using various examples, new trends in German academic libraries will be illustrated.

African Libraries Transforming Their Place in the Community
1:00 pm – 2:30 pm
MCP-W178b

Libraries in Africa have long followed traditional models, but they are now transforming their role to be more active in the community through better engagement with their communities. These presentations showcase efforts for libraries to become transformative partners in their communities.

Libraries Support Research in Germany
1:00 pm – 2:30 pm
MCP-W176a

Academic libraries at German universities support researchers by providing scientific information resources, managing and linking research data, and assisting with open access publication of research results. A system of specialist information services that puts the interests and needs of the researchers at the forefront has been developed with financial support by the Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft, the German Research Association. The developments in Germany in these areas will be presented using numerous examples.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Accessibility Information

ALA wants your experience to be a pleasant and accessible one. Here is what’s in place to ensure the Annual Conference is accessible to all:

- Sign language interpreters and open captioning are automatically provided for select sessions, see page 78 for a list.
- We have accessible sleeping rooms in our hotel block. Please complete the housing form and check the appropriate box. An onPeak representative will contact you to make sure you are placed in an appropriate room.
- Leader animals of all kinds are welcome throughout the ALA Conference.
- Listening devices are available for those who are hard of hearing.
- Our shuttle bus company has accessible buses. Instructions on how to obtain rides are available in each hotel, in the convention center on-site, and in the on-site newspaper, COGNOTES.
- Based upon availability in each city, we maintain a limited number of wheelchairs and scooters on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Conference Services coordinates interpreting services for people who are Deaf, DeafBlind or Hard of Hearing. To use the service, interpreter requests should be made prior to conference attendance by contacting Conference Accessibility at confaccess@ala.org or 312-280-3225.

An interpreter is also on-call in the Conference Services Office in McCormick Place West, Thursday through Monday for last minute requests on a first-come, first-serve basis.

“Children In the Exhibit Hall” Policy

Any and all children must be in a stroller at all times if on the exhibit floor. Unescorted children are not permitted on the exhibit floor. Children under the age of five must be under control at all times (stroller, pack, etc.). Any child over the age of five must have an Exhibits Only badge to be admitted to the exhibit floor. These badges are available at onsite registration for $75. An adult must accompany all children under the age of 16.

COGNOTES—The Official Daily Newspaper

COGNOTES is the daily newspaper published and staffed by a group of ALA member volunteers. The COGNOTES office is open for submissions from 10:00am–2:00pm, Friday through Monday during the Annual Conference in the ALA Office in W375d of the MCP. The publication includes highlights of Annual events, important meeting times and room changes, photographs, and news items. The paper is published Friday through Monday during the Annual Conference, and a special digital Highlights issue (Issue No. 5) will be emailed to all ALA members following the Conference. An online version will be available to all members at www.alaannual.org. COGNOTES is available in the registration area of McCormick Place West, in the COGNOTES office, and at several other locations onsite. News and informational contributions will be considered for publication on a daily basis. The deadline for news items is 2:00pm the day before publication.

AL Store

Located in McCormick Place West, Grand Concourse, the ALA Store offers products that meet the widest range of your promotional and continuing education/professional development needs—as well as fun gift items. Make sure to carve out some time in your schedule to stop by and examine the many new and bestselling items available!

Saturday, June 24 8:30 am – 5:00 pm
Sunday, June 25 8:30 am – 5:00 pm
Monday, June 26 8:30 am – 2:00 pm

Child Care at the Annual Conference

ALA will reimburse the charges expended on childcare in the amount of $25 per day, per child to a maximum of $50 per day, per family to any fully registered parent for each day of the Annual Conference week, June 22–June 27, 2017. You must provide a receipt for childcare. This covers only childcare in the parent’s hotel room or other residence in the meeting city of Chicago and does not include charges for children’s food, transportation or gratuities, nor transportation for the sitter. ALA will not reimburse childcare expenses to attendees who live within the Chicago area that would be paid to the regular provider whether the parent was attending the Annual Conference or not. Parents may contact their hotel childcare center/babysitting service where it is available or find one online. Reimbursement forms are available at the ALA Conference Services Desk and must be signed by the individual performing the childcare services and presented by the parent to the Conference Services Desk by Monday, June 26, 2017. Please note that all reimbursements will be mailed out to the attendee the week following the Conference. ALA assumes no responsibility for sitter or childcare services.

Internet Rooms are open during exhibit hours and are located in the Exhibit Hall at the end of 2500 aisle. The Room is managed by ALA’s Internet Room Steering Committee and staffed with volunteers during regular exhibit hours.

Literature Distribution Area
Various literature has been placed in compartments in the ALA Registration Area. Delegates may help themselves to items of interest. Only ALA pre-approved items may be distributed. Additional materials cannot be accepted on-site.

Lost And Found
Items may be turned in or claimed at the Conference Services counter at the ALA Office in MCP, Room W375d. Unclaimed items will be held in Conference Services, 50 E. Huron Street, Chicago, IL 60611 for one month after the meeting. For help in locating lost items during the meeting, please call (312) 949-8600. After the meeting please call (312) 280-3222.

Meeting Changes On-Site
To change, add, or cancel a meeting, contact Yvonne McLean in the Conference Services Office, W375d of the Convention Center immediately. The information will be published in COGNOTES if the change has been requested before the 2:00pm COGNOTES deadline. All changes must be submitted directly to COGNOTES. Note: Door signs of ALA meeting rooms list all of the sessions scheduled (up to the time of their printing) to be held in each room, each day. Please do not assume that a room will be available when a listing does not appear for a time slot. Assignments may have been made after the sign was posted, or the hotel may be using the room for an outside meeting.

Meeting Point
Need to meet up with someone? Meet in front of the Meeting Point Pin located in the Grand Concourse.

Membership Services
Any questions or issues concerning your membership may be directed to ALA Membership Services personnel at the Registration desk. Bring any related paperwork or correspondence for faster service.

Mobile App for Annual Schedule and Exhibitor List
ALA Annual Conference Scheduler—get it on the go!
Access the powerful ALA Annual Conference Scheduler through the Mobile App for iOS and Android phones. Look for the app under “2017 ALA Annual” in the Google Play Store or Apple Store.
What you can do in the online Scheduler and Mobile App . . .
• Browse sessions and events,
• see the sessions your colleagues are attending, (if they’ve chosen to share),
• get word of any session cancellations, and
• find other attendees.
Please visit the Mobile App Help Desk located in the McCormick Place Convention Center if you need any assistance with the Mobile App.

New Mothers’ Room
The New Mothers’ Room is located in MCP-W473.

No Smoking Policy
Council action at the 1991 Atlanta Annual Conference resolved that, “smoking is prohibited at Annual Conferences, Midwinter Meetings, regional/national conferences, continuing education programs, exhibits and other gatherings sponsored by the ALA.”

Office Area Services
Computers, printers, and paper are available for use by Members in the ALA Office. Please bring your own software and flash drive.

Over 52 million people visit Chicago annually.
Open Meeting Rule

By Council action it was voted that all meetings of the Association are open to all members and to recognized members of the press. Closed meetings may only be held to discuss matters affecting privacy of individuals or institutions. Unit chairs may contact their staff liaison officer when unable to determine whether an open or closed meeting is appropriate. Closed meetings are designated with an * in the Daily Schedule.

ALA JobLIST Placement Services

Provided by the ALA Office for Human Resource Development and Recruitment (HRDR), the Placement is open: Saturday and Sunday, 9:00am–5:00pm in McCormick Place West, Level 3. Job seekers can register and search for jobs on the JobLIST Online site at www.joblist.ala.org. All services are free to job seekers. Registration is not required, but is recommended. Registration gives registered employers access to your résumé information. It also allows for direct communication between job seekers and employers. Employers who want to post positions should post them on the JobLIST Online site at www.joblist.ala.org. Employers who want to use the interviewing facilities must have an active ad placed on JobLIST at the time you schedule an interview. Employers who want a booth in the Placement Center should contact Beatrice Calvin at (800) 545-2433, ext. 4280. Policy 54.3 state, “The American Library Association is committed to equality of opportunity for all library employees or applicants for employment, regardless of race, color, creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, disability, individual life-style, or national origin; and believes that hiring individuals with disabilities in all types of libraries is consistent with good personnel and management practices.”

Program Addendum

Inserted in every program book, supplement copies of the program addendum are available at the registration desk. The program addendum will include critical changes to the meeting schedule.

ALA Graphics will feature a range of new and best-selling products, plus special conference-only items. New celebrity posters include Gal Gadot as Wonder Woman and Sarah Jessica Parker, who also headlines the 2017 President’s Program.

- Other posters making their debut at conference include Yuyi Morales’s Niño, Cars 3 in Revved Up to Read, Mother Bruce, and Dragons Love Tacos. Shop the expanded collection of super hero products, featuring Batman, Supergirl, Super Sons, Justice League, and Teen Titans.
- Prepare for upcoming fall events with new designs for Library Card Sign-up Month, 2017 Banned Books Week and 2017 Teen Read Week, including posters, bookmarks, and gifts.
- Find a selection of vintage posters that are no longer available online or in catalogs. Act quickly—quantities and designs are limited!
- Remember to stop by early to get your pick of conference t-shirts—they sell out fast!

ALA Publishing is excited to offer several new titles hot off the press, such as Stories, Songs, and Stretches!: Creating Playful Storytimes with Yoga and Movement, the new third edition of Fundamentals of Library Supervision, and Winning Elections and Influencing Politicians for Library Funding. Remember that you can find titles from ALA Editions, ALA Neal-Schuman, Facet Publishing, UK, and the ALA Divisions in the ALA Store, and also get free shipping on all book orders placed in the ALA Store (posters, bookmarks, and other gift-type items are not eligible for this offer).

Plan your time at ALA Annual to include the Meet the Author events taking place at the ALA Store:

- Lesley S. J. Farmer, author of Managing the Successful School Library: Strategic Planning and Reflective Practice, and Jennifer Velásquez, author of Real-World Teen Services Saturday, June 24, 12:30 PM
- A. Arro Smith, PhD, author of Capturing Our Stories: An Oral History of Librarianship in Transition Sunday, June 25, 4:00 PM

Prices at the ALA Store automatically reflect the ALA Member discount, so there’s no need to dig out your member number. And remember that every dollar you spend at the ALA Store helps support library advocacy, awareness, and other key programs and initiatives!

The Ryerson & Burnham Libraries at The Art Institute of Chicago constitute a major art and architecture research collection in the fields of art and architectural history.
Think Fit @ ALA is our health and well-being initiative, with a focus on both personal health and environmental awareness. Sustainability and “green” efforts are increasing throughout the events and hospitality industry. As we “Think Fit” to minimize our negative impact on the environment and work toward greater sustainability, we encourage everyone to keep an eye out for the environmentally friendly activities and opportunities that ALA and our vendors, exhibitors and other partners are working on.

HOW ARE ALA AND OUR PARTNERS THINKING FIT?

► Hyatt Regency McCormick  Hyatt Regency McCormick Place features a LEED Certified North Tower building and has many environmentally friendly practices in place by featuring water efficient faucets, showers and toilets, high-efficiently LED lighting throughout the property, a building automation system to effectively control the HVAC system and assorted recycling systems.

► GES  GES is the first and only global, full service events provider to earn APEX/ASTM Level 2 certification and ISP 20121. Sustainability is in their core values and implemented it in every aspect of their services.
  • 95% of GES lifts and riggers are powered by natural gas.
  • Furniture at GES is reused 6X then refurbished/customer sale.
  • GES has processed over 150,000 previously printed orders to paperless.

► SAVOR…Chicago Catering at McCormick Place Convention Center  SAVOR…Chicago leads the convention industry in sustainability certifications and recognition including Green Seal* certification, International APEX certification, Green Meetings Industry Council certification, recognition from the EPA and an Illinois Governor’s Award for sustainability.
  • Savor…Chicago has implemented many different waste reduction initiatives including changes in packaging and bulk condiments, recycling all food grease to bio-diesel, adopting a cork re-harvesting program and many other efforts.
  • Their 2.5 acre rooftop garden atop the West Building is the Midwest’s largest rooftop top garden producing seasonal harvests that yield 8,000 lbs. of farm-fresh plenty used in SAVOR…Chicago kitchens.

► McCormick Place Convention Center  McCormick Place has been awarded the "Best of" Editor’s Pick in the category of "Green Meetings" from the Illinois Meetings Events Magazine. The McCormick Place West Building attained LEED Certification from the U.S. Green Build Council, the organization that sets the standards for what is officially considered environmentally-friendly or "green". The West Building is the largest new-construction facility in the country to be certified.

► PRG  PRG has implemented a companywide Green Policy to minimize the impact of its operations on the environment. This Green Policy includes the following practices:
  • PRG periodically collects lighting, audio, video and scenic operations and delivers it to salvage yards where it can be melted down and reprocessed for reuse.
  • PRG minimizes fuel consumption by combining orders on trucks whenever possible and transferring inventory between depots to minimize long-distance LTL deliveries.

WHAT CAN YOU DO AS AN ATTENDEE?

► Download the ALA Mobile App and BluuBeam (see pages 49 and 43) and use the options they offer rather than printing things out. By moving more content to the mobile, we have been able to reduce the size of the program book.

► Bring your own reusable mug or water bottle for beverages—or buy one at the ALA Store!

► Look for the center’s recycling bins before throwing anything away.

► Reuse your conference bags for groceries and other shopping, or when you travel, to cut down on paper or plastic bags.

► Participate in your hotel’s green initiatives, such as the cards to opt out of daily linen changes, and paperless check-in/check-out options.
FIND YOURSELF SITTING ALL DAY? FOLLOW THESE TIPS TO KEEP YOURSELF FEELING FIT AND MOTIVATED WHILE AT ALA.

Leg Extensions
Take a seat, this stretch works your hips, thighs, shins and ankle.

Try it! Start by sitting on the edge of your chair and your arms by your sides for stabilization. Extend your left leg straight out and flex your foot. By flexing your foot you engage the muscles in your shin and ankle. Try to lift your leg as high as you can without rounding your back. Hold for 3 seconds and lower.

You’ve got it! Try 3 sets of 10 reps on each leg.

Seated Press-Ups
Get up, work your triceps and relieve spinal compression.

Try it! Sit in a chair with your feet firmly grounded on the floor. Place your hands on the arm rests of the chair, press down and extend your arms straight raising your body off the chair. Ensure correct posture by keeping your head lined up over your pelvis, this will allow your spine to “dangle” and unravel straight down creating space between each vertebrae. Either hold this position to focus on your spine or push up and down to work the backs of the arm more.

You’ve got it! Repeat 4 times if holding. If lifting and lowering, try 3 sets of 10 reps.

Watch That Slouch!
Good posture is key. Whether you sit or stand, keep your shoulders back, abs in and your head tall.

Learn! Posture and your abdominal muscles are a two-way street. A good posture naturally helps strengthens your abs, at the same time exercises focused on the abs supports an improved posture.

Try it! Perfect posture for a sitting position. Follow these 3 steps:
1. Sit at the end of your chair, feet flat on the floor, and knees equal to your hips and slouch completely.
2. Draw yourself up and accentuate the curve of your back as far as possible. Hold for a few seconds.
3. Release the position slightly about 10 degrees.

You’ve got it! This is a good sitting posture for you.

Move!
A relaxed and supported posture is the goal.

Learn! Muscles can tire from sitting in the same position for an extended period. This can lead to slumping and other poor postures.

Try it! To prevent this from happening take breaks from sitting every 30min and stretch, stand or walk.

Volunteer Opportunities
Looking for an easy community service contribution...The Playground @ ALA will feature a Little Free Library construction area, Better World Books distribution center and the ALA Staff Association will host a blood drive with LifeSource Chicago.

Better World Books' Wordsworth
MCP-Exhibit Hall, The Playground @ ALA, Booth #2956
Come see Wordsworth, the Better World Books’ book-donation-mobile!! When called to action, Wordsworth donates up to 3,500 books per visit to schools, libraries, senior living communities, and learning centers throughout the Midwest. Wordsworth is part of the Better World Books Cares global book donation program, and the company has donated over 3.6 Million books to organizations in need in just the past 12-months.

LifeSource Chicago
MCP-Exhibit Hall, The Playground @ ALA, Booth #3256
Blood donations help save lives. Organized by the ALA Staff Association and LifeSource Chicago, a limited number of donation opportunities will be available. Visit the website to schedule a time or stop by to see if there are openings. Saturday and Sunday, 10:00am-4:00pm, A special thanks to LifeSource.

Little Free Library
MCP-Exhibit Hall, The Playground @ ALA, Booth #3555
Everyone is invited to join Little Free Library for Library-building. Stop by, pick up a drill, and help assemble a Library kit. Not mechanically inclined? We’ll have additional fun and interactive activities for you! Libraries left with Little Free Library will be distributed through our Impact Fund program. This program receives hundreds of applications a year from people and organizations all around the U.S. that need a boost in bringing books to their communities. Recipients of these Libraries will receive mounting posts for installation, a starter set of books, and free shipping.

Placement Center Alive with Activity
The ALA JobLIST Placement & Career Development Center will be bustling with activities at the upcoming ALA Annual Conference in Chicago. In addition to having career counseling, résumé review assistance, and an onsite photographer, the Center is also hosting several special activities which are listed below. You don’t have to be currently looking for a job to benefit from our workshops and services.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

Mentoring-On-The-Fly
Saturday, June 24 • 9:00 am – 12:00 pm
Sunday, June 25 • 1:00 pm – 4:00 pm
Anyone who might be looking for career advice can stop by and talk with an experienced librarian about all aspects of their career.

Open House/Job Fair
Sunday, June 25 • 10:30 am – 12:00 pm
Employers will be available to talk to conference attendees about their institutions. You do not have to be an active job seeker to attend. Conference attendees can feel free to walk around and talk to all employers. No appointment necessary.

Check Out a Librarian
Sunday, June 25 • 2:00 pm – 3:00 pm
Are you a job seeker? Looking to find your librarian niche? Want to move up the librarianship ladder but not sure how? Are you interested in some of ALA’s amazing programs or getting involved in activities? Well, we have an event just for you! Join us to talk with working librarians who are doing great and interesting things with their careers. Find out how to get a job, move into a more specialized area, or move into your career goals. All types of exciting library workers will be represented. No appointment needed.

Workshops
The ALA JobLIST Placement & Career Development Center is also hosting several workshops.

SATURDAY, JUNE 24TH

ALA JobLIST Placement & Career Development Center Orientation
8:30 am – 9:00 am
This brief session is intended for those who may be unfamiliar with the Center. Employers and job seekers are welcomed to attend.

Getting Unstuck: Moving Ahead in Your Career When It Feels Like You Are Moving Behind
9:00 am – 10:00 am
Were you looking for security and stability in your library career, but now you are experiencing stagnation? Have you had periods of success and achievement as a library innovator, but currently are being passed over for raises, promotions, and the cool projects? Join us for this interactive session to learn how to anticipate and move past career plateaus.

Renew, Re-Energize, Refresh Your Career
10:30 am – 11:30 am
Here are the top three reasons many people say they’re in their current jobs - “I needed more hours, so I took it.” “It wasn’t what I wanted, but it was a foot in the door.” “I needed more money.” Sound familiar? Well, as they say, this isn’t a dress rehearsal, so it’s time you made the right career decisions - for the right reasons. Imagine being happy to go to work in the morning, seeing a bright future ahead of you and taking pride in the contribution you’re making. It can happen! Maybe you just need to... Renew Yourself! Join us to discover how.

Manage Your Stress and Start Living a Healthier Life Today
1:00 pm – 2:00 pm
Join us for this interactive session where we will discuss signs of stress and how it impacts your body and mental health. Walk away with stress reduction techniques that you will be able to use immediately. Leave feeling refreshed and prepared to meet challenges in healthier, more productive ways.

Tips, Tricks, and Strategies for a Successful Job Hunt
2:30 pm – 3:30 pm
Whether you are looking for that first librarian position, looking to move up the career ladder, anticipating a geographic move, or looking for something else entirely, this interactive workshop will provide you with strategies and tools to navigate and organize your search, analyze job listings, and write effective, compelling cover letters and résumés. We will also discuss the importance of creating, and maintaining, a professional online presence, and of networking and getting involved in professional development opportunities—all of which will help get you noticed, in a good way, and propel you one step closer to the interview.
SUNDAY, JUNE 25TH

HR Confidential: Insider Tips from HR Directors
9:30 am – 10:30 am
This will be an informal discussion/Q&A session where you can gain an insider's perspective on the recruitment process from experienced HR Directors. Get tips on how to make your application stand out. Find out how to be your own best advocate for professional development and career advancement. Explore negotiation strategies to ensure you get the most out of your offer package. Get answers to your questions from these human resource directors.

The Key to Getting Interviews: Great Cover Letters and Resumes
1:00 pm – 2:00 pm
You can’t show the hiring manager what a perfect fit you are for that job you really want if you can’t get an interview. Effective cover letters and résumés can be the key to getting your foot in the door. Get tips from someone who reviews cover letters and résumés daily — a human resource director. Bring your résumé and be prepared to leave with ideas for polishing your résumé and cover letters so that you can start getting those interviews.

Self-Care Practices for a Healthy Mind, Body, and Soul
2:30 pm – 3:30 pm
Self-care is not a one-time thought or event. The concept needs to be part of a long-term strategy that is embedded in your lifestyle. Join us for this interactive presentation where we will explore a holistic approach to wellness that encompasses mind, body and spirit. Walk away with tangible ideas that you can put into practice immediately.

Reference librarians in the nation’s public and academic libraries answer nearly 6.6 million questions weekly. Standing single file, the line of questioners would span from Miami, Florida to Juneau, Alaska.

FIRST-TIME ATTENDEE INFO

ALA Ambassadors help make the connection

ALA Ambassadors (ALA members who are longtime Annual Conference-goers) will be available throughout the conference and in the ALA Lounge. ALA Ambassadors can help you make connections to programs, people, and places so your conference time is well spent. Look for the Roaming Ambassadors around the conference site, too, with royal blue ribbons and “ASK ME” buttons, ready to answer your questions on the go.

Questions: Find us at the ALA Lounge.
- Look for ALA staff around the conference with the red name-badge holders.
- Look for the royal blue ribbons and “ASK ME” buttons that all Ambassadors will be wearing. They are ready to help.
- Tweet or DM us your questions at @alaannual.
- Visit the Networking Uncommons where there’s always someone to help.
- Ask other attendees around you; they’ve all been first timers.

ALA Lounge
(brought to you by ALA Membership)
MCP - Grand Concourse
Visit the ALA Lounge to connect with colleagues and other members, as well as ALA staff who can help answer your questions about the conference, your membership, the Libraries Transform campaign, and the many things happening at ALA. You can also find ALA Ambassadors here, ready to help you (and anyone looking for a conference refresher, first-timer or not) make connections to programs, people, and places so your conference time is well spent.
