North Carolina Publisher Offers a Thrilling Lineup at ALA

CHICAGO - Light Messages Publishing (Durham, NC) is proud to present author Dave Edlund and his presentation “International thrillers in a Divided World,” on the Chapter One Stage at the annual American Library Association conference. On Saturday, June 24th at 10:00 am, the acclaimed thriller writer will discuss how his expertise as a scientist influences his writing and how he seeks to address hot-button global issues through his critically-acclaimed Peter Savage novels. Dave will read from his novels and take questions from the audience as he shows the power of fiction to tackle critical issues that might otherwise seem insurmountable.

Dave Edlund will be signing copies of Hunting Savage directly following his presentation. He will also be available to meet librarians and sign free copies of Hunting Savage at the Light Messages booth 2639 on Saturday from 2:05 pm – 3:05 pm and on Sunday from 11:05 pm to 12:05 pm.

Light Messages will be hosting a number of other author signings and will be giving away free books all weekend long at booth 2639. Attendees of the ALA conference are also invited to enter a contest to win a Kobo Aura reader, pre-loaded with more than 50 titles from the Light Messages catalog.

Our Senior Editor, Elizabeth Turnbull, and our Managing Director, Betty Turnbull, will also be in attendance. They are looking forward to connecting with librarians and learning how Light Messages can better support our communities’ libraries. If you’d like schedule a one-on-one meeting with Elizabeth or Betty in advance, please email books@lightmessages.com.

Stop by booth 2639 for a full line-up of our authors and their scheduled signings.
